Public Program Unwinding

- The final cohort of the unwinding process was June 2024. May 31 was their last day of public program coverage if they lost eligibility.
- Consumers losing coverage may have options:
 - If Medical Assistance coverage was terminated for not completing the renewal, the former enrollee or household has a 4 month “reconsideration period” to complete the renewal.
 - If they are now eligible for a qualified health plan, MNsure offers extended special enrollment period options.
- DHS has notified MinnesotaCare households that premiums are starting back up beginning with July 2024.
